Marko Brest

LEFT WINGER · NK OLIMPIJA LJUBLJANA
(SLOVENIAN PRVA LIGA)

THE MOMENTUM CREATOR

THE MARKET SEES

A Slovenian league winger — a good dribbler with limited end product.

B360 SEES

A player who keeps attacks alive — constant forward momentum, elite under pressure, accelerating possession rather than finishing it.

THE EVIDENCE

He Keeps Attacks Alive, Rather Than Ending Them

Slovenian 1. SNL 2025/26 · vs. 28 wide attackers · Data: SkillCorner

MOMENTUM UNDER PRESSURE

Receptions under pressure 92nd

Progressive actions under pressure 83rd

Dangerous actions under pressure 79th

FORWARD PROGRESSION

Forward momentum 88th

Dangerous passes 71st

Pass attempts around the last line 88th

CONNECTIVE MOVEMENT

Pulling half-space runs 83rd

Runs ahead of the ball 79th

Coming short runs 79th

Development focus: increase end product after consistently arriving in advantageous attacking situations. The ability to sustain attacking momentum is already established; the next step is converting that influence into higher goal output.

IDEAL ROLE

Momentum Winger

THE OPPORTUNITY

A Wide Attacker Who Keeps Attacks Alive. Available Now.

IDEAL FOR CLUBS THAT

- Attack through combination play, not isolated dribbling
- Value forward momentum and pressure resistance in wide areas
- Want a winger who connects phases, not just finishes them
- Build attacks through half-space movement and line-breaking

MARKET INSIGHT

Modern recruitment often prioritises goals and assists when evaluating wide attackers. Far rarer are wide attackers who consistently increase attacking momentum before the decisive action occurs.

B360 ASSESSMENT

Marko Brest does not simply beat defenders. He keeps attacks alive. His combination of pressure resistance, progressive intent, and connective movement allows his team to maintain attacking momentum through multiple phases rather than relying on isolated individual actions.

THE ARGUMENT IN ONE SENTENCE

A low-risk opportunity to acquire one of the market's most complete momentum-creating wide attackers before his all-round attacking influence is recognised beyond conventional scoring statistics.
